Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report and at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 31-year old born in Houston, Texas and raised in Canada. He lives in Houston with his cousin, a co-defendant. He owns a .45 caliber handgun that he keeps at his residence. He has an aunt, uncle, and cousins residing in Houston. His parents are Canadian citizens who live in Montreal, as do two siblings. He is single and has no children. He has a U.S. passport and has traveled to Mexico and Peru in the last several years.
2. Defendant is accused of conspiracy and possession with intent to distribute cocaine in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841 and 846. The charges involve a large quantity of drugs, and defendant faces a penalty of up to life in prison.
3. Defendant is unemployed and has no financial ties to the community. He admits daily use of marijuana.
4. Defendant's criminal history includes a misdemeanor charge of interfering with the duties of a public servant for which he completed the terms of deferred adjudication.
5. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
